Aleksy Marzec, a passionate individual with a love for sports and mentoring, set out on his transformative journey with Active Fusion in 2021. At the onset, Aleksy applied for an apprenticeship, driven by his eagerness to delve deeper into the world of sports coaching and community engagement. With a stroke of luck and dedication, he secured a volunteer position within the charity.

Aleksy's initiation into the Active Fusion family commenced with his involvement in the 2021 Summer Camp, where he absorbed the ethos of teamwork, enthusiasm, and commitment for the Active Fusion team. His dedication and positive attitude didn't go unnoticed. Recognising his potential, Active Fusion extended an apprenticeship opportunity at Stone Hill School in September 2021.

Through a blend of volunteering, casual coaching roles, and active participation in Fusion Camps and After-School Clubs, Aleksy honed his skills. His journey epitomised the essence of seizing opportunities and embracing challenges. With each interaction and session, he mastered invaluable lessons in leadership, confidence, teamwork, and behaviour management.

Central to Aleksy's growth was the mentorship provided by Debbie, his tutor at Active Fusion. Her wealth of experience and approachable demeanour created a conducive environment for Aleksy to flourish.

Aleksy's role wasn't confined to conventional coaching boundaries; he soon ventured into community events, broadening his horizons and enriching his professional insight. The exposure to diverse settings equipped him with a unique adaptability and inclusion expertise.

Reflecting on his journey, Aleksy gave credit to the profound impact of his apprenticeship with Active Fusion.
